Christmas Lantern

YOU WILL NEED:

- Colored tissue paper
- Glitter
- Scissors
- Wide ribbon
- Glass jar, clean
- Night-light or candle
- Glue

1. Cut tissue paper into squares (about 1 inch by 1 inch).
2. Brush slightly watered-down glue onto the outside of the glass jar starting at the top and doing a small section at a time.
3. Place the tissue paper squares onto the glue, either randomly or in a pattern. Add glitter if you want. Let dry.
4. Add glue to the top of the jar. Wrap the ribbon around the top of the jar and tie in a bow.
5. Place a night-light inside the jar or ask an adult to place a candle inside. Remember to never leave a burning candle unattended!

Pinecone Christmas Tree

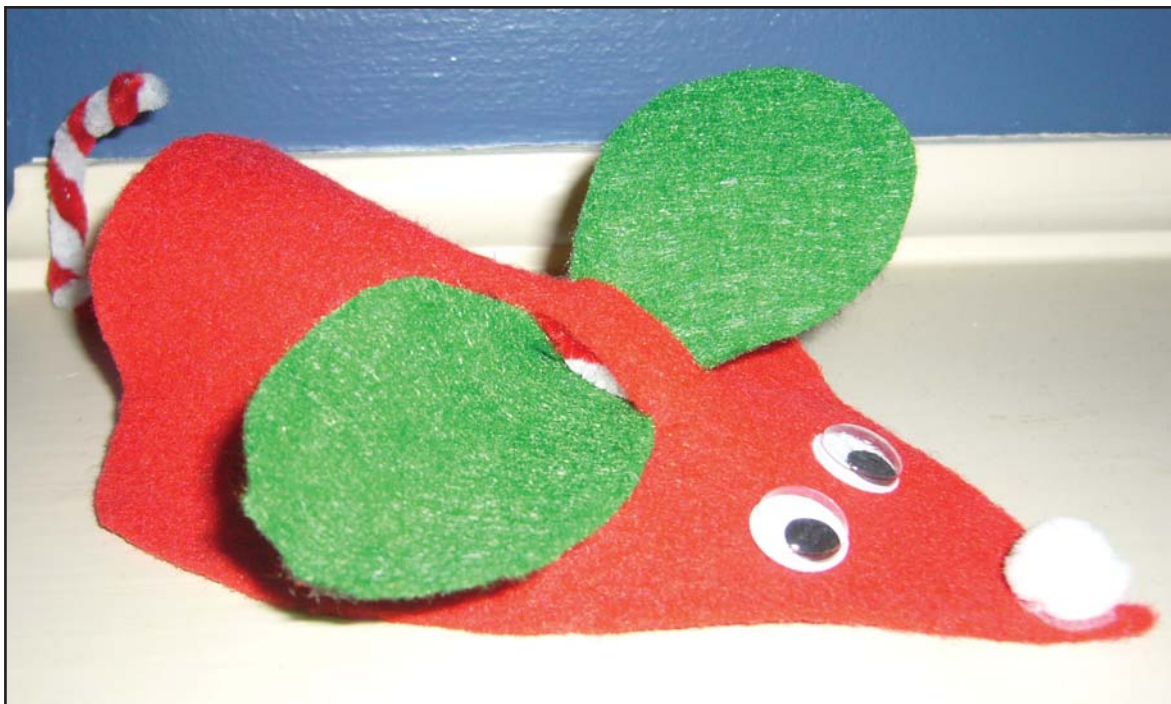

YOU WILL NEED:

- 1 large fir pinecone
- Green paint
- Glue
- 1 small terracotta pot that matches the size of your pinecone
- Thick construction paper or thin wooden star
- Glitter
- Ribbon

1. Lay down newspaper to protect your workspace. Paint the pinecone green. Let dry.
2. Drizzle or roll the pinecone in glue.
3. Sprinkle or roll the pinecone in glitter. Let dry.
4. Cut a star out of the construction paper or use a thin wooden star from a local craft store. Cover with glue and then cover thickly with glitter. Let dry.
5. Place the pinecone in the pot and glue or place the star at the top.
6. Add glue to the top of the pot. Wrap the ribbon around the top of the pot and tie in a bow. Or make a bow and glue it to only one side of the pot.

Merry Mice

YOU WILL NEED:

- Red and green felt
- Glue
- Candy canes
- Tape
- Scissors
- Pom-poms
- Googly eyes
- Ruler

1. Cut a 6-inch-long, teardrop-shaped body from the red felt. Near the center, cut two parallel lines 1 inch long and about half an inch from each other.
2. For a pair of ears, cut a five-inch-long, round, bow-tie shape from the green felt.
3. To put the mouse together, fit the ears through the slits in the body. Glue on googly eyes and a pom-pom nose.
4. Add a curly tail by slipping a candy cane beneath the mouse and tucking the straight end between the body and the ears to hold it in place.

Sock Snowman

YOU WILL NEED:

- White baby sock
- Batting
- String
- Fabric or ribbon
- Colored baby sock
- Glue
- Permanent marker
- Orange pipe cleaner
- 2 mini pom-poms

1. Fill the foot of a white baby sock with batting. Tie shut just above the ankle with string. Trim off the cuff.
2. Divide the sock ball into body and head by tying a piece of fabric or ribbon (scarf) around the sock.
3. To make the hat, gather the colored sock at the ankle and tie with a string. Leave enough string for a hanging loop. Cut off the foot. Roll up the edge of the sock like a stocking cap. Glue or sew on the hat.
4. Next, glue or sew on buttons. Draw on the eyes and mouth with a marker. Cut a one-inch piece of orange pipe cleaner for the nose and poke it in. Glue on pom-poms.
